

Details of the Evaluation System:

There are two types of evaluation system is in place in this institute.

1. University level

a) Diploma in Ayurvedic Nursing and Pharmacy (DAN & P)

The university conducts final examination in first and final years. The passed candidates proceeds to next year and candidates clearing final year are proceeded to join internship. The university has provision of supplementary examination for candidates failed in one or more subjects. The entire evaluation system of DAN&P courses is given below in tabular form;

S.No	Professional year	Total No. of subjects	Theory	Examiner	Internal Examination	Practical	Examiner
1	First	6	6 papers of 90 marks of each.	Central evaluation is done at university by the examiners from different states. Coding system is also followed.	10 marks in each subject. Evaluation is done by the concerned teacher and mark is added to final tally of theory mark.	One paper of 100 marks. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce.	One internal examiner who belongs to the examination centre and one external examiner.
2	Final	6	6 papers of 90 marks each	Central evaluation is done at university by the examiners from different states. Coding system is also followed.	10 marks in each subject. Evaluation is done by the concerned teacher and mark is added to final tally of theory mark.	One paper of 100 marks. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce.	One internal examiner who belongs to the examination centre and one external examiner.

b) Bachelor of Ayurvedic Medicine and Surgery (B.A.M.S)

The university conducts final examination in all professional years. The passed candidates proceeds to next professional year and candidates clearing final professional year joins one year internship program. The university has provision of supplementary examination for candidates failed in one or more subjects. The entire evaluation system of B.A.M.S is given below in tabular form;

S.No	Professional year	Total No. of subjects	Theory	Examiner	Practical	Examiner
1	First	5	1 or 2 papers of 100 marks each	Central evaluation is done at university by the examiners from different states. Coding system is also followed.	1 or 2 paper of 100 marks each. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation followed by viva voce. In some subjects there is no practical examination.	One internal examiner who belongs to the examination centre and one external examiner having five years teaching experience from any other institute of university.
2	Second	4	1 or 2 papers of 100 marks each	Central evaluation is done at university by the examiners from different states. Coding system is also followed.	1 or 2 paper of 100 marks each. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation followed by viva voce.	One internal examiner who belongs to the examination centre and one external examiner having five years teaching experience from any other institute of university.
3	Third	5	1 or 2 papers of 100 marks each	Central evaluation is done at university by the examiners from different states. Coding system is also followed.	1 or 2 paper of 100 marks each. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation, bed side clinical skill assessment, followed by viva voce.	One internal examiner who belongs to the examination centre and one external examiner having five years teaching experience from any other institute of university.
4	Final	5	1 or 2 papers of 100 marks each	Central evaluation is done at university by the examiners from different states. Coding system is also followed.	1 or 2 paper of 100 marks each. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation, bed side clinical skill assessment, followed by viva voce.	One internal examiner who belongs to the examination centre and one external examiner having five years teaching experience from any other institute of university.

c) M.D/M.S

The university conducts final examination in first and final professional years. The passed candidates proceeds to next professional year and candidates clearing final professional year are awarded PG degree in concerned subject. The university has provision of supplementary examination for candidates failed in one or more subjects. The entire evaluation system of M.D/M.S courses is given below in tabular form;

S.No	Professional year	Total No. of subjects	Theory	Examiner	Practical	Examiner
1	First	2	2 papers of 100 marks. One paper of concerned subject and another of research methodology and medical biostatistics	Central evaluation is done at examination centre by the both external and internal examiners appointed by university.	One paper of 100 marks. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce.	One internal examiner who belongs to the examination centre and one external examiner having five years PG teaching experience from any other university.
2	Final	4	4 papers of 100 marks each	Central evaluation is done at examination centre by the both external and internal examiners appointed by university	4 papers of 100 mark each. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce. Thesis submitted by students as his/her PG research work is evaluated by one internal examiner and two external examiners appointed by the university.	Two internal examiners who belong to the examination centre and two external examiners having five years PG teaching experience from any other university.

d) Ph.D

The university conducts a preliminary examination after six months and final examination after minimum 3 years and maximum 5 years from the date of enrolment. The entire evaluation system of Ph.D course is given below in tabular form;

S.No	Professional year	Total No. of subjects	Theory	Examiner	Practical	Examiner
1	Preliminary	2	2 papers of 100 marks. One paper of concerned subject and another of research methodology and medical biostatistics	Central evaluation is done at examination centre by examiners appointed by university.	Not applicable	Not applicable
2	Final	Nil	Thesis is evaluated by both internal and external examiners appointed by the university.	Home evaluation is done by the both the examiners. After they recommend the thesis for acceptance, further examination is done.	Viva-voce examination is conducted by the examiners who have evaluated the thesis.	One internal examiner (Supervisor of the candidate) and one external examiner possessing Ph.D degree in concerned subject and having ten years PG teaching experience from any other university.

2. Institutional Level: The institute conducts formal regular internal evaluation to assess the performance of the students so that adequate redressal mechanism could be applied in order to maximise the performance of the students at university level. This examination system is voluntarily adopted by the institute with an objective to improve the performance of the students by continues monitoring, though there is no such provision in the university examination system.

a. Diploma in Ayurvedic Nursing and Pharmacy (DAN &P)

The institute conducts two terminal examinations in each year. The respective curriculum of each subject is grossly divided in to three parts. First part of the curriculum is evaluated in first terminal examination and second part of the curriculum is evaluated in second terminal examination which is held three and six months from the beginning of the classes respectively. The entire evaluation system of DAN&P courses is given below in tabular form;

S.No	Professional year	Total No. of subjects	Theory	Examiner	Practical	Examiner
1	First	4	4 papers of 100 marks of each.	Appointed by the institute	One paper of 50 marks. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce.	Appointed by the institute
2	Final	4	4 papers of 100 marks of each.	Appointed by the institute	One paper of 50 marks. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce.	Appointed by the institute

b. Bachelor of Ayurvedic Medicine and Surgery (B.A.M.S)

The institute conducts two terminal examinations in each year. The respective curriculum of each subject is grossly divided into three parts. First part of the curriculum is evaluated in first terminal examination and second part of the curriculum is evaluated in second terminal examination which is held three and six months from the beginning of the classes respectively. The entire evaluation system of B.A.M.S course is given below in tabular form;

S.No	Professional year	Total No. of subjects	Theory	Examiner	Practical	Examiner
1	First		One paper of 100 marks each	Appointed by the institute	One paper of 50 marks. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce.	Appointed by the institute

2	Second		One paper of 100 marks each	Appointed by the institute	One paper of 50 marks. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce.	Appointed by the institute
3	Third		One paper of 100 marks each	Appointed by the institute	One paper of 50 marks. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce.	Appointed by the institute
4	Final		One paper of 100 marks each	Appointed by the institute	One paper of 50 marks. The practical examination comprises of suitable experimentation/clinical assessment on bed side followed by viva voce.	Appointed by the institute

c. Exit test for interns:

Although there is no such provision in university system of examination in order to ensure the quality of practical expertise of to be passed out students, one exit test is being conducted by the institute in the clinical subjects. This test is conducted after completion of eleven months of internship. Students whose performance is found to be not satisfactory is imparted special extra training in last months and reappears for the exit test.

